

Complete this chart to analyze the decisions made by these women as young adults, mothers, women of faith, and, in two cases, farm or plantation wives.

	Life Span (years)	Adult Role	Major Life Decision	Consequences of Decision	Social Implications of the Decision (and Its Consequences)
Jane Turell	27	daughter and wife of Boston ministers
Elizabeth Ashbridge	42			one of the few colonial women preachers
Mary Cooper	64		to join a "New Light" Baptist church		new religious communities spurred by the Great Awakening
Eliza Pinckney	71			introduction of indigo to colonial agriculture and trade
Mary Jemison	90	Indian captive and adoptee	to remain with her Indian husband and children after end of Revolution		